Welcome to Mass on this Easter Day - and a special welcome if you are visiting the parish today to celebrate the Lord's resurrection. Today is the Feast of Feasts – for Christ, who was crucified, is risen!

At the Easter Vigil and First Mass of Easter held in the darkness of the night, the first reading from the scriptures is the beautiful account of the creation. In that reading we hear the Word of God first speak on the very first day of the creation story: 'Let there be light!'

Where there was darkness - absolutely nothing, utter emptiness - the Word of God speaks and brings light and then life. Time begins! Creation's story begins.

The late Pope Benedict, reflecting on this truth a few years ago said, at Easter Mass,

At Easter, on the morning of the first day of the week, God said, once again, "Let there be light." The night of the Mount of Olives, the solar eclipse of Jesus' passion and death, the night of the grave had all passed. Now it is the first day once again – creation is beginning anew. "Let there be light", says God, "and there was light. Jesus rises from the grave. Life is stronger than death. Good is stronger than evil. Love is stronger than hate. Truth is stronger than lies.

We have marked this season of Lent over these last few weeks with prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Many of us will have given things up we love! But the real point of these disciplines isn't to make us miserable, or thinner! They are there to nurture freedom – to free us to live as the children of God gifted to us in our baptism:

For you have given your children a sacred time for the renewing and purifying of their hearts, that, freed from disordered affections, they may so deal with the things of this passing world as to hold rather to the things that eternally endure. (Preface of Lent)

The forty days of Lent are followed by the fifty days of Easter. So, as we renew our Easter promises today, let us exult in our Risen Lord who accompanies us through the sacraments and the scriptures. As we hear in the appearance of Jesus on the road to Emmaus:

Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us Then they told their story of what had happened on the road, and how they had recognised him in the breaking of bread. (Luke 24)

A very happy Easter to you all!

Emma Clamens RIP - Emma was one of our young children of the St John's children's liturgy. Emma has been poorly for some time. Recently, as some of you will know, Emma's parents took her to the United States for treatment. Sadly, Emma died last weekend. In the coming days we will have a Mass for her. Please remember Emma, her Mum and Dad and her family in your prayers.

EASTER COLLECTION - at the Easter Vigil and Easter Day is the Easter offering for the priests of the parish. There are envelopes at the back of church for this collection as well as the contactless point in St John's and St Thomas's. The Easter Offering, along with the Christmas Offering, are the main sources of income for priests, and help to provide the tools for their ministry such as cars, as well as providing personal expenses. Thank you for your generosity.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA – 8.00am every morning from Good Friday until Holy Saturday at St John's Church. A recording will be available online.

Jesus asked that Divine Mercy Sunday be preceded by a Novena, beginning on Good Friday. He said: "On each day of the Novena you will bring to My heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy ... On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls." The last day has most difficult intention, for the lukewarm and indifferent. He said: "These souls cause Me more suffering than any others".

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY – 7th April, 3.00pm Holy Hour at St John's with devotions to the Divine Mercy, Benediction, Confessions and the Blessing of Divine Mercy Images.

St. Faustina, who received visions from Jesus, wrote in her diary that He said: "I want the Image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter [now called Divine Mercy Sunday], and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it... I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy." According to the vision, those who receive communion and attend confession on the Feast of Mercy receive total forgiveness of sin and its effects on us.

GOOD GRIEF CAFÉ - The next café meeting is on Sat 6th April, 10am – 12noon in the Brabazon Room, Dupuis Centre. For anyone who has suffered a bereavement, join us for support and refreshments.

Entrance Antiphon

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia.
You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia.
Too wonderful for me, this knowledge. Alleluia, alleluia.

Collect

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

First reading

Acts 10:34,37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 117(118):1-2,16-17,22-23

This day was made by the Lord: we rejoice and are glad. R/.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love has no end.' R/.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.
I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R/.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes. R/.

Second reading

Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Sequence

To the Paschal Victim, Christians, offer a sacrifice of praise.

The Lamb has ransomed his sheep;
the innocent Christ has reconciled sinners with the Father.

Death and life confronted each other in a prodigious battle;
The Prince of Life who died, now lives and reigns.

"Tell us, Mary, what did you see upon the way?"

"I saw the sepulchre of the living Christ; I saw the glory of the Risen One.

I saw the angels, his witnesses, the shroud and the garments.

Christ, my Hope, is risen; he will go before his own into Galilee."

We know that Christ is truly risen from the dead;

O Victorious King, have mercy on us.

Gospel

John 20:1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Prayer over the Offerings

Exultant with paschal gladness, O Lord, we offer the sacrifice
by which your Church
is wondrously reborn and nourished.
Through Christ our Lord.

Communion Antiphon

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia;
Therefore, let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.

Prayer after Communion

Look upon your Church, O God, with unfailing love and favour,
so that, renewed by the paschal mysteries,
she may come to the glory of the resurrection.
Through Christ our Lord.
