MESSAGE FROM CANON JOHN After eleven years, this is my final Sunday in the parish. It is fitting that the sacred action that began my time here, ends it: the celebration of Mass, the source and summit of all that we are as individuals and a community. It is here that the mystery of the living God becomes real and truly present to us: Jesus Christ, his grace and eternal life.

This also serves as a reminder that this is not the conclusion of our pilgrim journey together. Think of it as a spiritual "pit stop" for a change of priests that also provides an opportunity to give thanks to God for bringing us this far before we gather ourselves, rise and press forward with the promise of future glory lying ahead of us.

I have been so blessed to be your priest and companion along this stretch of the pilgrim way. Accompanied by Christ, we have shouldered each other's burdens, cupped each other's tears, delighted in each other's gifts, witnessed miracles and learned to praise. We have found that God's grace is mightier than our weakness. These are not small things. They have certainly left a deep impression on me.

So as I've been anticipating this weekend, and praying for all of you, and for what it is that the Lord has done here over the last 11 years. One of them is 1 Corinthians 3 where Paul writes: "I (Paul) planted, apollo's watered, but God gave the growth. So, neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth."

So, I've been thinking of all the priests who've served here before I have and thanking God for the gift that they've been to this parish community and the gifts that they were for me.

Thinking of Fr. Craig as he prepares to assume the mantle on 23rd August, and I'm thinking back to all these encounters that I've had with countless people in our parish.

I don't know if I've planted anything in anybody. I don't know if I've watered anything that somebody else planted. What I do know is that whatever it is that's happened in our lives, it was God that gave the growth. And so, the praise goes to God.

To be a priest, and especially to be a parish priest, is to regularly come under scrutiny. People say all sorts of things. But trust me, I don't know anybody who's more critical of me than I am. And I am painfully aware of who I am. Of all my faults, all my failures, all my sins, all my selfishness.

What I learned in my life is that "No matter how kind or generous you are, You will never satisfy an ungrateful person."

LEAVING GIFT Envelopes are available at the back of church for parishioners to give Canon John a leaving gift offering, please place them in the collection today. SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Entrance antiphon: See I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

First Reading "The remnant of my flock I will gather and I will raise up shepherds to look after them" Jer. 23: 1-6

Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered – it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them. Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds – it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost – it is the Lord who speaks!

'See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (4 V)

Second Reading

"Christ Jesus is the peace between us"

Eph. 2: 13-18

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far apart from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God: in his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord, I know them and they follow me. Alleluia!

Gospel

"They were like sheep without shepherd"

Mark 6: 30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Creed - The Nicene Creed

Everyone: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
