Summertime and the Living is Easy! (Borgy and Bess' Gershwin and Wakeman)

“And Jesus said to his apostles: ‘Come away by yourselves to a secluded place and rest a little while’ for there were many people coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat (Mark 6)

Here Jesus was inviting his friends to a time of ‘gratuitous rest’, rest for self and not with any future work or project in mind. A present from you to yourself. “If you gave yourself a chance to rest, just what would you look like and how would you feel about yourself?” (anon).

In our ever busy culture, we expend so much energy on ‘doing’, forgetting that we are primarily human ‘beings’. A ‘proper summer’, with long days and sultry evenings (if we are gifted with one this year), is an invitation from nature itself to pause, allowing much time just ‘to be’ and to receive – nature will give us so much if we but make room to receive! Let the quotation here speak to your heart (and let your head fade from the equation!).

Whether you are travelling in UK or abroad, or spending time at home with family, let some time this summer be quality time for yourself and those dear to you.

Do not ask: “what shall we do”; rather ask “how shall we be”

Barn Dance - Thank You For Supporting The Event

A wonderful and great fun evening was had on Friday night at the Barn Dance. Lots of dancing, steps not necessarily in the right order but huge enjoyment none the less!

The profit will go to the Barbara O’Rourke Arts Foundation and will support the funding for children who would otherwise be unable to pay for dance lessons themselves. Barbara was a very experienced and truly brilliant dance teacher. The Foundation will enable children to find that you can express yourself through the medium of dance.

Sean will let us know how much was made as soon as possible.

Following a restructure, The Princethorpe Foundation Estates department is moving to a model which gives more operational autonomy and responsibility to individual schools whilst continuing to provide support and expertise via a team of Foundation-wide managers.
