THE WORD THIS WEEK

Despised in his own country, or in his own parish? The Gospel should teach us that what is truly a mark of God's presence is not signs of piety, which can be faked, but signs of mutual love, which can't. The people that gathers for the Eucharist should be precisely one that doesn't despise each other, where all are welcome, those for whom sympathy comes easily and those for whom it doesn't. The word is mutual. Before the prestige of office-holding and 'special' ministries comes the esteem and support all the baptised owe each other, the 'ministry of being there.'
