"Look back and give thanks. Look forward and take courage"

It is right that we should celebrate the Olympic Movement, not only in the successes signified by gold, silver and bronze medals, but in the hundreds of thousands of people engaged in the Games during the past couple of weeks. We remain amazed at the limits to which the human body can stretch, knowing that what we see has been four or more years in preparation of mind, body and spirit. We thank God for the wonder of God's creation.

We are shocked by the reactions of some people to tragic events, and we are now frightened at the escalation of the Ukraine War into Russia. We know as well that there are few places in our planet free from the utter fragility of our humanity. Current additions to our prayer list demonstrate the truth of this.

A Christian tries to hold all of these in prayer and, currently, turning consciously to the God Whom we believe has not abandoned creation. And so, to a prayer:

"Consoling God, be a source of serenity for me when struggles and difficulties threaten to overwhelm me.

*God of Hope, assure me of your unconditional love
when I doubt myself or question the worth of my life.*

Truth loving God, encourage me to embrace you during times when I get lost in the lies of my weakness.

Compassionate God, hold me to your heart when I feel helpless in the face of the world's pain.

Light-filled God, keep me ever close to you during these moments when bleakness surrounds my life.

Comforting God, shelter me under your wings when I am engulfed in sadness and overcome with distress.

*God of peace, you are the centre of my life, a strong refuge of peace.
in the whirlwind on my pain.*

I look to you for strength and a constant assurance of hope."
