Dear Parishioners

November is precious for Catholics, the month of the Holy Souls, and priests across the world are offering Mass for the eternal repose of loved ones...Mum, Dad, siblings, friends.... I find this time such a comfort for the Faithful as we share through the Resurrection of Christ our Lord and Saviour, in that great company called the Communion of Saints.

This weekend is Remembrance of our War Dead and in both parishes we will be celebrating a Requiem Mass for those who made the ultimate sacrifice. The Divine Sacrifice of Calvary, made once and for all, will be offered on our altars and we will remember Him whose death paid the price, redeemed us, for all time.

War is sadly a feature of our fallen humanity and fresh blood is spilt in each generation. We must always pay tribute to our fallen out of respect and gratitude, and we can also lift up our hearts and voices to the Lord of Mercy.

" When you go home, tell them of us and say
For your tomorrow, we gave our today."

Next week: Masses at usual times.

Thursday: Funeral of Salvatore( Sam) Oliveri (12 pm) (Holy Trinity).

First Communion class(Friday, 4.15 pm, Holy Trinity) and Confirmation class (post Mass, Holy Trinity).

Any parents with children wanting to serve on the altar please see Fr Clive.

Looking ahead...Sunday 1 December is the First Sunday of Advent and we will be using the new Lectionary and new Mass books. Those who use their own Missal should order the new version now to be ready in time!

God bless everyone.

Fr Clive

CTC United Service which was planned for Sunday 17 November 3pm has been POSTPONED as it clashed with the CRAG concert (3pm in the memorial hall, the renowned British cellist CAROLINE DALE in a programme of Bach, Bruch, Rachmaninov, Martinu and Chopin. ## Entertaining the parish

We hope to organise an afternoon of family entertainment from our gifted Parishioners in Spring next year. With this in mind, would you be interested in actually taking part (fifteen minutes maximum), or becoming involved? It could be singing, playing a musical instrument, reciting, giving a short talk, telling stories or jokes, running a short entertainment for children, or indeed anything. In fact, helping to organize the event may appeal to you.

Please let me know if you would like to take part to entertain your fellow Parishioners or help stage the event.

Carol Service and Parish Party – 15th December 3pm

The carol service for advent will be on the afternoon of the 15th December (Gaudete Sunday), and will be immediately followed by the Parish Party.

Choir: Our first meeting / rehearsal will be at 7pm this Tuesday, 12 November in the church. All are welcome. Some weeks we will have a rehearsal on Monday instead, and/or Sunday after Mass, so if you can't make this Tuesday, there are plenty of opportunities to come and sing with us.

Parish Party: At the party, we plan to give each child in the parish a suitable gift. We are looking for donations of gifts, wrapped and labelled with a peel-off post-it note (contents, gender, suitable age (price around £5)). If you would like to donate a gift, please leave your contributions in the box at the back of the church from 17th to 30th November.

Anne and Suze will be collecting names of the children from this Sunday from parents who would like their child to receive a gift.

ACN Christmas Cards and small gifts

ACN Advent calendars, Christmas cards and other small gifts will be on sale after Mass every Sunday until 24th November in the Bulbeck Room. Please come and buy cards to support our parish charity.

ACN RED WEDNESDAY 20 NOVEMBER - ST TERESA'S

Each year ACN invites us to remember and show support for persecuted Christians world wide by dedicating one day of the year to their memory. Red Wednesday is that opportunity for all of us to keep in our hearts and prayers the situation of the many thousands who are persecuted for their faith. This year the focus is on children who have either directly or indirectly suffered because they are Christian. St Teresa's will be offering a dedicated Mass at 9:15am followed by Benediction on Red Wednesday 20 Nov; the church will be decorated with red flowers and candles and we are asked to wear red in support. If you can, please come to Holy Mass and Benediction on 20 November so we may show our support for our suffering brothers and sisters in faith.

There will be coffee afterwards at the Deli, Suze Mathews
