Second Collection – Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham

Yesterday seven parishioners from St Anne's parish Wappenbury, together with others from neighbouring parishes and the deanery, travelled in pilgrimage to Littlemore in Oxfordshire to visit the home of St John Henry Newman and the Church of Blessed Dominic Barberi. This church is one of the nominated Jubilee Churches (more later) within the Archdiocese of Birmingham for visitation during this Jubilee Year.

Our visit was brief: 10.30am – 4.00pm, Mass followed by input from the sisters there, concluding with Holy Hour and Sacrament of Reconciliation. We listened to a brief exposition of John Henry's amazing life and conversion in 1845 as we visited those places where he spent some time after his conversion.

There was a sense of awe about the place, a sort of silent cry for 'conversion', as we prayed in silence and as many availed of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We recalled John Henry's famous saying, "to live is to change, and to be perfect is to have changed often", as we considered Jubilee Year 2025 as one during which we are invited and challenged to reset our relationships with each other and with God.

We are reminded also of John Henry's motto, borrowed from St Francis of Assisi and adopted by Pope Benedict when he celebrated the beatification of John Henry in 2010, "Cor Ad Cor Loquitur: Heart Speaks to Heart", to speak to God and to hear God speak in the bottom of the human heart".

While much is being organised within St Anne's for 2025, we must not forget the essence of a Jubilee Year: a new beginning individually and collectively, a real conversion, leaving whatever past that was ours behind, once and for all. For this reason, our Pilgrimage Walk on 8 June is one of the important dates for this year. This is more than a 'walk in the park'. It must incorporate an inner journey for each one of us, beginning in prayer and prayerfully seeking God's will for us at whatever stage of life we are at.

For St John Henry Newman, conversion demanded a review of previously held convictions, indeed a review of life itself, a process that would not be rushed for him. For many of us, our journey will invite a reassessment of our inherited faith and, more especially, our expressions of that faith. Realistically, many have told me over the years how they lived expression of their faith remains that of their early childhood. This is simply a fact of life, now however inviting a new experience of self, others, God, church.

During Jubilee 2025, we/you will be offered invitations to pause, to review, to change, to grow, in experience and in knowledge, in faith.

Heart is calling to heart – Are you ready and waiting

Senior Citizens Afternoon Tea – Saturday 26 April – 3.00pm – 5.00pm

Our Jubilee Year of Hope kicks off with Senior Citizens Afternoon Tea on Saturday 26 April on the Terrace at St Anne’s.

This promises to be a very special afternoon of sandwiches, cakes and tea and coffee under the cover of the marquee.

If you would like to attend this relaxing afternoon event please contact Loretta, after Mass, by email to her parish email address or by telephone to 07951 256796. We have limited places so please let her know if you would like to come by Monday 8 April.

Now Looking For Royal Albert Tea Sets And Bunting, Please

Do you have a Royal Albert Tea Sets you would be willing to donate to St Anne's?

If you do, please let Sarah Cusworth or Loretta know. To support the funding of the Afternoon Teas we can sell on any Royal Albert tea sets.

We are also now in need of sugar bowls, milk jugs, cake forks, coffee and tea pots – all in the pretty themed intention of the afternoons.

We would also like to decorate the marquee on St Anne's terrace. If anyone is handy with a sewing machine and can sew triangles of pretty cloth into bunting, it would be lovely to receive any donations. Ideally the size should be 5ins across the top with a drop of 7ins for the triangular sides.

Donations can be left in the porch at St Anne's. Many, many thanks.
